PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the alleged violation with the violations previously reported to the Court on April 10, and 11, 2025.

On February 9, 2024, a probation officer met with Mr. Martinez and reviewed the conditions of supervision as outlined in the judgment. Mr. Martinez indicated he understood the conditions of supervision.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

4

Special Condition #6: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Martinez is alleged to have violated his supervised release conditions by consuming fentanyl on or about April 10, 2025.

On April 10, 2025, at 3:50 p.m., Mr. Martinez reported to the probation office in Yakima, Washington. During the contact Mr. Martinez provided a drug test that was sent to Alere Toxicology Services (Alere) for testing.

On April 17, 2025, probation received a drug test report from Alere showing positive results for the presence of fentanyl.

5 Mandatory Condition #2: You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance, including marijuana, which remains illegal under federal law.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Martinez is alleged to have violated his supervised release conditions by possessing fentanyl on April 16, 2025.

On April 16, 2025, Mr. Martinez was arrested by law enforcement in Yakima, Washington. After he was arrested, law enforcement discovered approximately 20 suspected fentanyl pills in a compartment on the drivers side door of the vehicle Mr. Martinez was driving when he was arrested.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court incorporate the alleged violation with the violations previously reported to the Court on April 10, and 11, 2025.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: April 18, 2025
